

Mr. Wedge's class had the opportunity to visit the St. Joseph's Mercy Health Center where they visited a pediatric office, a dentist office and the x-ray department. The students learned many lessons on health including hand washing, dental care and ways to keep healthy during cold and flu season.